

CREATING A YES/AND LIFE

The BeCreation™ Experience Foundation

A Two-Day Transformational Intensive for High Achievers

What is BeCreation™

BeCreation™ is an experiential learning intensive designed to help high achievers break through invisible ceilings and step into the bigger game they're meant to play.

This isn't therapy. This isn't a seminar. This is transformation through practice—using improv, embodied learning, and breakthrough conversations to help you interrupt unconscious patterns and make the impact you're capable of.

WHO THIS IS FOR?

This is for you if:

- You've accomplished a lot—and you can feel there's a next level calling you
- You sense patterns are limiting your success, but can't quite name them yet
- You're ready to stop managing perceptions and become less attached to external validations (knowing you are enough)
- You want your outer impact to finally match your internal capability
- You're willing to play, be real, and do the work (because true transformation isn't passive)
- You want a powerful, supportive community that's committed to your full expression and success.

This is NOT for you if:

- You're looking for a magic bullet (this is practice, not theory)
- You're not ready to get honest (vulnerability is part of the deal)
- You'd rather observe than participate (this is hands-on)
- You're completely content where you are (and that's totally valid)

The BeCreation™ EXPERIENCE

What You'll Experience & Discover

Discover what's been running your life—without your permission. You think you're making conscious choices. You're not.

- Your self-worth number – the one you've been secretly giving yourself, and why it's been quietly limiting your life (plot twist: it's changeable, and you'll start changing it)
 - The pull of your programming – the magnetic force of what you've always done versus the intentionality it takes to create your life from a different place
 - The stories you've been believing – about yourself, about what's possible, about why things are the way they are (spoiler: they're fiction, not fact, and you've been the author all along)
 - Your invisible ceilings – the limits you've accepted as reality without ever questioning them (they're more elusive than you think, and surprisingly powerful)
 - One important thing, done – not planned, not "I'll get to it," but completed in real-time (you'll make the call, send the email, have the conversation – with the group holding space)
 - Forgiveness as freedom – because resentment is a weight you don't need to carry anymore (this isn't about them, it's about setting yourself free)
 - Your vision, lived – not imagined, not hoped for, but stepped into and felt (this is where courage and commitment stop being a concept and become a practice)
 - A community to support your vision – people who witnessed your commitments and will support you to bring your most cherished visions to life

WHAT YOU'LL GAIN

Immediate Outcomes

- Clarity about what's been limiting your success (hint: it's not you, it's your patterns)
- Tools you'll actually use (how to shift your state when you're stuck; how to reframe your stories; and how to embody your vision)
- Courage to play the bigger game (because you'll see what was blocking you)
- A community of values-aligned people playing at your level (high achievers done with small)

Long-term Impact

- You'll stop hitting invisible ceilings (because you rewrote the code)
- Your relationships will deepen (because you stopped making others wrong and got present to who people truly are for you)
- You'll reclaim your artistry (the voice, creativity, and power you've been protecting)
- You'll shift into a sustainable abundance mindset
- You'll live a Yes/And life (where reality and possibility coexist)
- Embrace the opportunity to celebrate life and play more

FAQs

What if I can't make the late March dates?

We'll be offering additional Foundation programs throughout 2026. However, the $695 Founding Price is only available for the March launch. Future programs will be priced at $1,495.

Do I need improv experience?

No. We use improv as a tool for transformation, not performance. No experience necessary—just willingness to participate fully.

What if I'm not comfortable being vulnerable in front of others?

We create a safe, structured environment with graduated vulnerability practices. You'll never be forced to share more than you're ready to. That said, breaking through upper limits requires stepping outside your comfort zone.

Can I bring a colleague or friend?

Yes! We'd love to have them. Direct them to the enrollment page or connect us so we can extend a personal invitation.

Is this just for entrepreneurs?

No. This is for any high achiever—entrepreneurs, artists, executives, leaders, creatives, coaches, professionals—who wants to break through their upper limits and make greater impact.

Is this therapy or coaching?

Neither. This is experiential learning. We're not diagnosing or treating mental health conditions. We're helping you interrupt unconscious patterns and break through upper limits through practice.

MASTERY FOR LIFE

Help Us Build This Community

Know fellow high achievers who are ready for the bigger game? We'd love your help bringing them in.

How you can help:

Share Your Story:

- Tell others authentically what transformed for you
- Share what upper limit you broke through
- Describe what became possible

Make Introductions:

- Connect us with people who belong in this work
- Extend personal invitations to colleagues, friends, and fellow leaders
- Help us gather the right people

Direct Them to Enroll:

- Send them to: <https://bit.ly/becreationnewmembers>
- Or connect us so we can extend a personal invitation

Your contribution to building this community matters deeply to us, and we're exploring meaningful ways to honor it.
